To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in reference to Meisy Zamora. As an employee of the Discovery School, I have known Meisy since her children began attending the school in the early to mid nineties. I was a teacher at the time and now am the director of the school. She has been a dedicated parent and involved with her children especially her youngest daughter, Georgina. Her youngest daughter graduated the school as a sixth grader in May 2017. Meisy has always held high standards in the education of her children. Georgina has always been very active in extracurricular activities and school with the support of her mother alongside her at all times.

It is my sincere hope that the court takes this letter into consideration.

Respectfully,

Leticia Sanchez, Director
Discovery School
